SEPTEMBER

2010

Blue Dolphins

We are really excited to be getting back into the swing of things. It was nice to have some new and familiar faces back in the classroom. Many of you are still getting to know Ms. Jessica so she will make it a point to sit down with all of you in the next few weeks so you know more about her. We are in the process of beginning our pre-k academic program as well as working on our collaborative projects and asking the children what they would like to learn as we all embark

Fall is here and we have lots of fun things planned in the Blue Dolphin room.

on this new Journey as a class. We are starting to decorate a surf board which we will work on for the next few weeks and when it is done it will be a centerpiece for our classroom. Ms. Jessica welcomes all of her new students and looks forward to getting to know each one of you.

We will have our first set of parent conferences in November and we are also looking forward to the formation of a pre-K academic Advisory committee. First meeting will be this month.

Purple Sharks

It is getting into fall and the children of the Purple shark room are preparing for many fun activities. Look for more documentation of their work in the next few weeks. As fall approaches much of the work that they will be bringing home will be fall projects from things they have chosen themselves.

Ms. Amalie, is excited about her new students and looks forward to getting to know each of her families better. If any of you have an idea for the class or would like to come and do a special project with the children please let her know. We welcome family participation and comments about the class at any time.

Rainbow Fish

The Children are learning more every day about how to use class materials.

Welcome all new and returning families. All the children in the Rainbow Fish room are preparing to start the new year because this room is new for many of them it will take a few weeks to really start getting going. Ms. June is looking forward to starting some great fall activities and if you have not checked out the light room documentation please do so it is in the hallway. The children in this room will be focusing this month on getting to know one another and communicating with their peers. All of the children are learning to talk more and with that comes some great communication milestones the first of which is using words to communicate feelings and deal with frustrations. The children so far have loved the stations and we already have some great works of art coming from that room.

This is a small class and all of the children are very close and have really started to work both collaboratively and independently very well. Ms. June welcomes you to speak with her at any time if you have questions or would like to know anything about classroom activities aside from what is on the board. Look forward to even more communication about your child both written and verbally in the coming weeks.

Green Turtles

We would like to welcome all of our new Green turtles. It has been a really fun couple of weeks and now that the children are learning classroom routines look for more documentation and communication from Ms. Magaly and Ms. Brandi. They green turtle room will be doing some great projects for fall very soon and you will be seeing more of your child’s work coming home in the coming weeks. Magaly and Brandi are really big on communicating with all of you so if there is a way that we can improve our communication don’t hesitate to ask and we hope all of you will attend our Fall potluck and open house. It is a great opportunity to look around the classroom and see all of the work your children have done. Parents please remember to leave a package of diapers for your child that way you do not have to remember them as frequently. Also if you bring a new Sippy cup or lunch box please make sure that your child’s name is written on it or let us know so we may properly mark your child’s belongings.

PTA and Pre K Advisory Committee

We understand that all of you are busy but if you are interested in joining the PTA this year it is not to late. The next Meeting will be held on Sept 17th from 4:30–5:30. We will be discussing goals for the year and you will have the opportunity to sign up for a committee based on your interests and talents.

We are also forming a Pre-K academic advisory committee to help make the Learningden Pre-k class the best that it can be. If you have children that have been through the program or there are specific goals or expectations that you have for your pre-K child it would be great if you could come and join this important group. We will meet

Friday Sept 24th from 4:30 –5:30, We think this will be a fun and collaborative experience for the whole family to work as a true part of their child’s classroom. Ms. Jessica looks forward to all of your input.

Child Guardian Parent Workshop

The Learningden Preschool and Sean Mason Law firm is proud to sponsor A child Guardian parent workshop Sept 21st from 6:00-8:00pm . We understand that many of you don’t want to think about anything happening to you or your spouse but imagine how hard it would be on your children if arrangements are not made. Sean Mason has come up with a guardian packet for free that helps guide families in making decisions about guardianship for their families. Please download the Packet prior to the workshop and RSVP to ensure enough food and staffing.

Some of the workshop will include covering the following topics:

*Identify key criteria for choosing a guardian.

*Select the people you want to care for your children.

*Learn the difference between long-term and short-term guardians and why naming both is so important for the welfare of your children.

*Know why naming a guardian in your will is not enough.

*Complete legal documents nominating long-term and short-term

guardians.

*Complete a confidential legal document excluding someone from being a guardian.

*Gain peace-of-mind that your children will be well taken care of.

There is no charge for this workshop and it will be open to Learningden Families as well as the Public. Invite friends, family members, and anyone else that you think might benefit from gaining this valuable information. That night the Learningden Preschool will be providing art activities, dinner, and fun for the children.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
